Most of us don't celebrate Christmas in January, but here at EAA 1058, it seems to be the only time we can schedule to have Christmas. We had a great fly-out to Myrtle Beach in December, and now it's time for the annual banquet & Christmas party for EAA 1058. Check out the details inside this issue for the dinner.

Letter From The Editor

Well, it's the New Year already. I get the feeling that everyone had a holiday season like mine; I had no free time to do anything that I wanted but did most of the things that had to get done over the holidays. It seems like every day was so full of things to do that nothing seems to get done.

Now it's time to get some things going for EAA 1058. The first thing on the list is to get this newsletter off my desk. I started both the November and December issues, and, well, here it is combined into the New Year issue. There really was very little news to pass along for our group over the past two months.

The first big event of the year is our annual banquet. Check out the details below. We need to get together in our February meeting and layout the plans for this year to make it as great as last year, only better.

Annual Banquet

Our Annual EAA 1058 Chapter Banquet Meeting has been set for Friday, January 25, 7:00 p.m. at Mr. B's Restaurant in Lydia (which is on US Highway 15 about halfway between Hartsville and Bishopville for those of you who have not visited Lydia!) A room has been reserved for us to "eat and meet!" So be sure and get directed to the "right room!" when you arrive.

This year instead of everyone bringing a dish it was decided that each would each pay his/her own way for the meal and let someone else (the staff at Mr. B's) take care of all the work. There will be a buffet available or you can order from the menu.

Jesse has arranged for Maurice Lemmon of Powers Aviation to be our guest speaker and we look forward to having him with us.

As in the past, everyone is asked to bring a wrapped gift to exchange ($5-$10 max). There "may" be a few more surprises in store, so we hope all of you will be able to attend and bring your spouse, significant other, guest, future member, etc. But, please be sure there are gifts for everyone you bring so no one gets left out.

As in past years, this annual event is a great time to get together with friends, remember the good times, and talk about the future. We hope that you and those you invite to attend will be able to join in the fun at that time. This event will also take the place of our regular monthly meeting.

See you on January 25th!
